FAQ's

- Why don't you visit all of the breweries?
There are over 20 breweries on the South Coast Ale Trail and you would need a lot more time to visit them all. Most venues don't open until after 12pm and if you include traveling time you can only make it to about 3 each day
- Can you customise the itinerary and include other breweries and attractions?
Yes we can change it to whatever you want
- Is there are minimum number for a group?
To make the price reasonable, we suggest a minimum group size of 10, but we can arrange trips for any number from 2-50
- Who will I share a room with?
If you are travelling with a friend, you can share a room with them, otherwise you will share with someone else.
- Can we make our own way back from Merimbula?
Sure you can drive or fly out of Merimbula airport depending on where you are going
- Can we do this as a self-drive?
Most certainly, you can grab download a copy of the South Coast Trail Ale Map and do a self-drive trip any time of the year. You will even get most of the special offers. We have other itineraries you can follow as well
- Can you customise a trip for me and my group?
Most definitely, just email us at journey@southcoastaletrail.net.au
